

Financial Aid & Scholarships

The Department of Economics customarily awards between $20,000 - $75,000 to undergraduate students each year! More information on scholarships can be found at <https://economics.osu.edu/undergraduate-programs/financial-aid-and-scholarships>.

Economics Undergraduate Scholarship

Intended to acknowledge top-performing undergraduate economics majors. The fund is maintained by generous gifts from alumni, staff, faculty, and other supporters of the department.

The Department customarily awards 2 students with a scholarship amount of $500.

The Chris and Angie Marshall Undergraduate Economics Fund

Intended to acknowledge undergraduate student(s) who are majoring in economics. The fund was established in February of 2022 with a generous gift from alumnus, Robert C. Marshall and wife Angela R. Marshall, and matching funds as a part of the Scarlet and Gray Advantage Endowed Matching Gift Program.

The Department customarily awards 1 to 2 students with a scholarship amount of $2,000-$4,000.

The Keith and Linda Monda Scholarship Fund

Intended to acknowledge undergraduate economics majors, who are also enrolled in the Arts & Sciences Honors Program, with academic merit and financial need. The fund was established with a generous gift from alumnus Keith Monda and his wife, Linda.

The Department customarily awards 1 to 2 students with a scholarship between the amount of $3,000-$5,000.

William Green Memorial Fund

Intended to acknowledge undergraduate economics majors with backgrounds, studies, or career interests that are relevant to working people. The fund was established with a generous gift from the American Federation of Labor in honor of and in memory of William Green, former president of the American Federation of Labor from 1924 to 1952.

The Department customarily awards 2 to 4 students with a scholarship between the amount of $3,000-$7,000.

Gledhill Prize in Applied Economics

Intended to acknowledge the best paper in applied economics by an Undergraduate Economics Major. The fund was established with a generous gift from alumnus and Economics Advisory Board member, Scott Gledhill.

The Department customarily awards 1 student with a scholarship amount of $1,000.

The Michael O'Shaughnessy Endowed Fund in Economics

Intended to acknowledge undergraduate economics majors who are high potential business-minded students. The fund was established with a generous gift from alumnus Michael O'Shaughnessy.

The Department customarily awards 2 to 3 students with a scholarship between the amount of $2,000-$5,000.

Tom Kniesner and Debbie Freund Fund for Student Support

Intended to acknowledge undergraduate economics majors who are first-generation students with financial need. This fund was established with a generous gift from alumnus and Economics Advisory Board member, Tom Kniesner, and his wife, Deborah Freund, also a distinguished health economist.

The Department customarily awards 2 students with a scholarship amount of $2,500.

Harold A. Black Endowed Scholarship Fund for Economics

Intended to acknowledge undergraduate economics majors who have overcome substantial educational or economic obstacles and also have potential for graduate work. This fund was established with a generous gift from alumnus Harold A. Black.

The Department customarily awards 1 to 2 students with a scholarship between the amount of $1,000-$2,000.

For questions about our offered scholarships, please contact Sydneigh Burnell (burnell.15@osu.edu).