

Note: Shaded areas/dotted lines represent 90 percent confidence intervals. These are calculated using Driscoll-Kraay standard errors. Black/red dashed lines are the estimated coefficient for each horizon.