

90 percent confidence interval

Average effect

baseline

Note: Shaded areas represent 90 percent confidence intervals. These are calculated using Driscoll-Kraay standard errors. Black lines are the estimated coefficient for each horizon.