

Sources: Central bank legislation (central bank laws, reforms to the laws and relevant constitutional provisions). Inflation: Domestic sources and publications, IMF's International Financial Statistics and World Economic Outlook, end of year data.

Note: The CBI index is codified based on the criteria and sub-criteria laid out in Annex A.

Inflation is transformed to $\text{inflation}/(100+\text{inflation})$. The line corresponds to the simple averages for all countries each year.