Thursday, January 31, 2019 - 2:30pm to 3:30pm

217 Journalism

The Save the Crew Movement will go down in the lore of sports, as it is likely the first time in history a community has come together to prevent a team from moving. Instrumental to the fight was Morgan Hughes, who organized the initial Save the Crew rally and kept up the fight until the team was sold to local interests, Hughes will join us for our first Huddle of 2019 to share his experiences and give the behind-the-scenes story about how Columbus saved the Crew.
